Whiskey Maple Smoked Old Fashioned

This quintessential cocktail is known for its balance of bitter and sweet. Mixing Monday Whiskey, For Bitter For Worse Smoky No. 56 and Three Spirit Nightcap with a hint of orange peel, Dugan and Dame Chocolate Bitters and Tree Juice Whiskey Barrel Maple Syrup and you have all the ingredients for greatness. It was during the post-prohibition era that this elder statesman secured its place in cocktail folklore, becoming the drink of choice for the Mad men, movie moguls and everyone in between.

Tequila Passion Fruit Margarita

Sweet, tropical, and tangy, the Passion Fruit Margarita is fruit-forward with tart and sour notes from passion fruit syrup combined with orgeat and citrus notes from triple sec orange liqueur. Blended with Ritual Tequila and fresh lime juice, this margarita has a slightly softer kick than our Mango Jalapeño Margarita. Served on the rocks with/without King Floyd's Sriracha Rim Salt.

BABY IT'S COLD OUTSIDE • 10

Gin/Rum Alexander

You might be familiar with the Brandy Alexander, however, we are featuring its predecessor, the vintage Gin/Rum Alexander with a recipe dating back to 1910. Our NA version is made with Monday Gin or Ritual Rum, crème de cacao syrup, orgeat, heavy cream and garnished with a dusting of fresh nutmeg and a few dashes of Dugan and Dame's chocolate bitters, this desert drink tastes like Christmas in a glass anytime of year.
